DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

The species are as follows:

There are three distinct species regarding the stages of the gear box; single-stage (A), two-stage (B) and three-stage (C) gear boxes.

Within the two-stage gear box species there are two further subspecies; a gearbox with TP kinematics (D) and a gearbox with SP kinematics (E).

Further within the two-stage gear box species there are two other subspecies; the ring wheel of H_{an} connected fixedly to H_{ab} (F) and the ring wheel of H_{an} connected to A3 (G).

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

2. The claims are deemed to correspond to the species listed above in the following manner:

Species A, Claim 17
Species B, Claims 18, 20-24, 26 and 27
Species C, Claims 19, 25 and 28-30

Applicant must elect one of A, B and C above. In the event that applicant elects Species B, applicant must make further elections, one from Species D and E and one from Species F and G:

Species D, Claim 23
Species E, Claim 24

Species F, Claim 26
Species G, Claim 27

The following claim(s) are generic:

Claim 16 is generic to all the Species, claims 18, 20 and 22 are generic to Species B.

3. The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:

4. As can be seen from figure 1, the three different stage gear boxes have different methods of assemble and therefore are distinct from one another.

Applicant is to be made aware that the claims as currently presented are ambiguous and/or indefinite for the following reasons:

Claim 16 recites that one subassembly (H_{an}) is joined to at least two other subassemblies. However, dependent claim 17 is a method of making a single-stage gearbox which is assembled without (H_{an}) (see figure 1) and thus contradicts the language of claim 16. To further complicate the claims, claim 18 is dependant from claim 17 despite the fact that the components of claim 17, specifically A1 are not used in claim 18 because a two-stage gearbox is being described. These are only two examples of the various incongruities existing in the claims, applicant is strongly advised to amend the claims to more clearly recite the limitations of the invention in response to this office action in order expedite prosecution of the instant application on the merits.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

5. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
